HigherLegal™ is not a law firm and does not provide legal services or legal advice. All legal services will be provided by your Panel Attorney.

This agreement does not set forth the attorney fees or costs you will be charged by the Panel Attorney who takes your case. You will enter into and sign a separate contingency contract with your Panel Attorney regarding the amount of fees and costs you will be charged.

Your satisfaction is our primary goal. Your signing of this agreement provides authorization for HigherLegal™ to keep track of your case and to obtain from your Panel Attorney, in writing, any information about your case including all legal files, correspondence, accounting records, cost reports, settlement agreements, bank records, settlement documents, computer data, financial data and/or other parts of your files. During the course of your case we will send you periodic emails and surveys to check your satisfaction. It is our goal to keep track of your case and be able to answer your questions as they arise.

Pursuant to the rules of the State Bar of California, the fees charged to you by your Panel Attorney cannot be increased by reason of this agreement. In accordance with the California Rules of Professional Conduct, including Rule 2-200, the parties to this agreement acknowledge there will be a division of fees and costs and that the total fees and costs charged to you are not unconscionable as that term is defined in Rule 4-200. This Client Contract and Fee Division Agreement (“agreement”) provides your consent to this sharing of fees between HigherLegal™ and the Panel Attorney who takes your case.

This agreement also grants permission for HigherLegal™ to stay in contact with you and communicate with you on all matters during your case. Our goal is to provide you with the very best customer service.
